

Crestwood Connection

Providing Residents Information About Businesses Focused On Serving Its Community

Within close proximity of your business are thousands of potential new customers! Many of these customers don't even know your business exists. Statistics show that households move every 6 years on average. That combined with the phenomenal growth in the Crestwood area provides a great opportunity, for businesses that understand the value of effective marketing.

The Crestwood Connection, a publication that connects businesses with the local community, published quarterly, provides you the opportunity to reach those new customers.

Crestwood Connection Details:

Full Color – High Profile and easy to read.

8.5" x 11" - Larger than most publications received in the mail and will stand out from the crowd.

High quality printing that gets noticed.

Mailed to over 7,300 local recipients - Delivered US Mail to all of Crestwood & Buckner, your ad will be in the hands of your customer. This is mailed independently of any other publications and will not be a part of or hidden inside another publication.

Worth Reading - Inside The Crestwood Connection will be a variety of spotlights on local businesses, seasonal tips, and community related articles.

Check out a Sample:

www.writenowmarketing.com/connection.htm

(samples of Prospect Connection only available at this time)

To be included in the Next issue, contact us now!
Don't miss this opportunity to place an ad
in your customer's house for as little as 4¢.

For more information, contact Sarah Merrick at (502) 931-5394
or email sarah@writenowmarketing.com

